

Draft Report

Management of Proximity to violence and GBV in the Reception System in Tuscany

Local context

- Sprar System vs CAS system
- Data available by Public Authorities (few data still to be collected and processed)
- Places available for unaccompanied minors and vulnerable people

System of protection

Direct interviews and collection of experiences (social operators, legal operators and coordinators)

Case management (gbv, proximity to violence etc.) through:

- Anti-violence centers
- Anti-trafficking bodies
- Hospitals (specifically codice rosa)
- Lawyers

Anti-trafficking

- Procedure of refferral by the Commission
- Collaboration between reception centers and anti-trafficking associations
- Organization of anti-trafficking bodies in the Region

Case management of past signs of violence on asylum seekers

- Forensic Medicine
- Ethno – psychological support program
(SPRINT – Sistema di protezione interdisciplinare per la salute mentale di richiedenti asilo e rifugiati)

Professionals involved in the centers

Studies backgrounds:

- Cultural and Social Anthropology
- Political Science
- Law
- Psychology

Training carried out

- Trafficking indicators
- Samira course
- Domestic violence

Strenght points idientified

- Relation of trust with the people hosted in the centers
- Services orientation
- Sprint project
- Samira program

Weaknesses identified

- Protocol of intervention (not there)
- Capacity of the services and cultural mediation
- Fragile network of services

Next steps

- Finalize the research:
Interviews to local authorities and social services to be finalized (deadline end of September)

Provide protocol

- Training methodology and selections of participants:

